NINETEEN KILLED IN RAILWAY WRECK

Passenger Train Is Telescoped With Fearful Results.

FAILED TO SEE DANGER SIGNAL

On Acount of Heavy Mist the Engineer of Express Train Could Not See Signals of Front Train—Worst Wreck in Many Years in Massachusetts.

Lincoln, Mass., Nov. 28.—The most disastrous railroad wreck in this state for many years occurred at Bakers Bridge station, a mile and a half west of Lincoln, on the main line of the Fitchburg division of the Boston and Maine railroad.

The regular Sunday night express, which left Boston at 7:45 o'clock for Montreal, via the Rutland system, crashed into the rear of a local train, which started from Boston at 7:15 for points on the main line and the Marlboro branch.

The early morning lists the dead and injured indicate that nineteen persons lost their lives in the rear-end collision. Twenty-five persons were more or less seriously injured and others sustained cuts and bruises.

The tracks were not entirely clear of wreckage until today, and the eastbound track was freed of debris during the night, and a number of trains were transferred around the wreckage early in the day.

The Montreal expresse which left Boston at 7:45 last night and crashed into the Marlborough branch accommodation train, resumed its journey to the Canadian city about 3 o'clock in the morning.

The following is a revised list of the dead:

May Campbell, of Maynard, Mass.

William Walsh, of Maynard, Mass.

Charles Wetherbee, of Acton, Mass.

Donor Gauthier, of Boston, Mass., a brakeman of the accommodation train.

Charles E. Barnard, of Charlestown, Mass., fireman of the express.

Annie Hartwell, 21 years old, of Littleton.

Anna Hillbridge, 5 years old, of Acton.

Mary Mosweeny, of Concord, Mass.

Joseph Karlson, of Maynard, Mass.

Joseph Baris, of Maynard, Mass.

—— Baris, three years old, son of A. B. Baris.

B. Tydeprius, aged 50 years, residence unknown.

Five unidentified dead.

The most seriously injured, al of whom were taken to the Massachusetts general hospital in Boston.

Statement of Witnesses.

Those who were witnesses of the collision said the local train which consisted of flur cars, three of them passenger coaches, had just pulled out of Baker Bridge depot, a small flag station about a mile and a half west of Lincoln station. Just west of the flag station is a highway bridge over the railroad. The train had entered a deep cut after passing under the bridge and the rear car had just cleared the structure when the heavy Montreal express, consisting of nine cars and two locomotives, crashed in the rear.

The impatt was terrific, and probably a majority of those killed met death almost instantly. The forward locomotive telescoped the rear car and passed part of the way through the coach immediately at the head. The second car of the local train was also badly damaged, but the first car and locomotive escaped.

The leading engine of the express was practically destroyed in the collision, and the work was completed when fire, which immediately broke out among the heaps of wreckage, consumed all the woodwork of the two rear cars, which remaind on the roadbed and incinerated a number of the victimms.

The fireman of the leading locomotive, Charles E. Barnard, was burned to death in his cab, but Engineer Connors managed to escape in some strange manner. He was found under a tree nearby. His injuries were not regarded as serious.

The second locomotive of the express was badly damaged. The engineer and firemen of this engine escaped injury and no persons in the coaches of the Montreal train was injured. All the cars remained on the rails.

When the accident occurred the local train was said to have been a few minutes late, and knowing that the express was close behind, it is claimed that the rear brakeman, Donor Gauthier, who was killed, set out red torches, indicating danger. When the express train was at Lincoln station, about a mile and a half east of the scene of the wreck, the Montreal train was running at its usual rate of speed, estimted all the way from 35 to 50 miles an hour. It is said that a signal calling for caution was set against the express at Lincoln station. The theory of railroad men today is that smoke from the engine of the local as it passed under Baker hig way bridge obscured the red lights in the rear. From the bridge all the way back to Lincoln station the track is straight. The night was dark, and at times during the evening a mist hung over the tracks.

VALUATION OF OUR CROPS.

Secretary of Agricultural Wilson Issues His Annual Report.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Wealth priduction on the farms of the United States in 1905 reached the highest amount ever attained in this or any country—$6,415,000,000.

In the first annual report of his third term Secretary of Agriculture Wilson presents an array of figures and statements represting the products and profits of the farmers of the country, which, he admits, "dreams of wealth production could hardly equal." Four crops make new high records as to values—corn, hay, wheat and rice—although in amount of production the corn crop is the only one that exceeds previous yields. In every crop the general level of production was high, and that of prices still higher.

Besides the enormous yield of wealth the secretary estimates that the farms of the country have incerased $6,133,000,000 in value during the past five years.

This increased value, the secretary suggests, is invested better than in bank deposits, or even in the gilt-edged bonds of private corporations.

The cotton crop was valued at $575,000,000.

Drivers Strike in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Nov. 28—Growing out of a trivial cause another suspension of work occurred on the river front today. Boss Drayman James Grant ordered his stableman not to permit boys to drive his mules through the streets to and from the blacksmith shops. Teamster Jordan violated the order and a fight resulted between him and Stableman Fitzgerald, in which Jordan's arm was broken. Fitzgerald was exonerated in court. Thereupon the teamsters demanded the discharge of the stableman. Grant refused and his drivers struck. When they heard of this the other boss draymen locked out their men. The result is that no cotton is being hauled and other laboring organizations are idle. A strike of the teamsters two months ago was settled by arbitration.

Man Cremated in Hotel Fire.

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 28.—One man was burned to death and six persons were injured in a fire that destroyed the interior of the South End hotel early today. The charred body of Patrick Meesner, aged 50, a steel mill puddler was found in the ruins. Howard Rheimfrank, aged 19, son of the owner of the hotel, was badly burned. His mother also suffered severe burns and bruises. Four others received slight injuries in jumping from the building. The property loss was only $5,000.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 28.—Tomorrow night the alumnae of Princeton university from Tennessee and other southern states will gather here at the first annual banquet given by the Princeton Alumnae association of Tennessee. President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton, is to be the guest of honor at the banquet and will deliver an address. Dr. Wilson arrived here Saturday.

SULTAN ACCEDES TO DEMAND OF POWERS

Big Naval Demonstration Has the Desired Effect.

TURKEY RECEDES FROM POSITION

The Internatonal Fleet Was Ordered to Sieze Turkish Town by Force Unless the Porte Agreed to Powers' Proposition.

Vienna, Nov. 28.—The Neue Freie Presse today published a dispatch from Constantinople saying that the sultan through Tewfik Pasha, the foreign minister, has announced to Baron Calice, the ambassador of Austria-Hungary, that Turkey accedes to the demands the powers regarding the financial control of Macedonia.

Ordered to Seize Mityline.

Constantinople, Via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 27.—The instructions to the commander of the international fleet were to land detachments and occupy Tityiene at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon unless contrary orders reached them in the interim.

Presumably, therefore, the capital of the island is now in the hands of the allied forces.

It was arranged in the interview between Tewfik Pasha, minister of foreign affairs, and the British and Austrian ambassadors received on Saturday that if by 8 o'clock Saturday night the ambassadors received a written notification from the foreign minister promising acceptance of the powers' proposition, the ambassadors would telegraph to the fleet at Mityiene to suspend further operations until Monday.

No communication, however, was received, so it is suggested that instructions staying the hands of the commanders of the international fleet have not been dispatched.

CONCERNING COUNTRY'S FUTURE

Japanese Believe that They Should Have Control of Manchuria.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 28.—The steamer Athenean brought advices yesterday that Baron Komura was recently sent as a special ambassador from Japan to Pekin as commissioner to make certain arrangements to secure domination in Manchuria, as well as to make a general post bellum readjustment. Japanese public is afraid that Pekin will shortly be again a center of intrigue, and they are a unit in demanding Japanese ocupation.

Count Okuma in a recent speech after stating that China was unlikely to do anything on its own account said Japan's magnanimity alone should govern the dispisition of Manchuria. The Chinese was not entitled to demand retrocession and there should be military occupation by Japan as Russia occupied the province. Trade regulations in Manchuria are sought by Japan to conserve the trade of the province.

Georgia Baptists Are Nemerous.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 28.—"Georgia has more Baptists than she has of all other denominations combined," declared Hon. W. J. Northen, at the convention of Baptists. "There are more Baptists in this state than can be found in any other state in the union except in Texas. There are more Baptists in Georgia than are to be found in any similar area anywhere else in the world." This declaration was made to prove the great possibilities of Mercer university, it being shown that by its environment and affiliations it ought to lead all denominational colleges in America before it rests content with its achievements. It was declared to be the Georgia Baptists' contribution to education.

Receiver Appointed for Bank.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The comptroller of the currency has appointed T. H. Rinaker, of Curtisville, Ill., receiver of the enterprise National bank of Allegheny. Mr. Rinaker was a lawyer and a former member of the Illinois state legislature.

COTTON CONTINUES TO RISE.

New Orleans and New York Markets uote Staple Higher.

New Orleans, Nov. 28.—As a result of the circular of the former New York bear leader sent here on Saturday, the local market opened today with a spurt upward of from 15 to 20 points. The effect was to send all the months above 12 cents. Longs saw in the prices an excellent opportunity to take profits and the result was a reaction. By 1 o'clock there were recessions that left the market only about 5 points above the close of Saturday.

At the 12 o'clock call cotton was 10 points up at 11:57; January was 13 up at 11:73; March was 12 points up at 11:97, and May was 13 points up at 12:14, with a strong under tone noticeable.

New York Market.

New York, Nov. 28.—New high records for the season were made at the opening of the cotton market today with trading sensationally active and excited. The movement was caused by a circular issued by the former bear leader on Saturday to the effect that he had covered his short contracts and also by the big advance in Liverpool, where a small failure was announced. The first prices here were 26 to 35 points higher, with March selling at 11.88, or points above the previous records.

Later the market eased off to a net gain of about 20 to 25 points on the active months.

Realizing continued during the late morning, and prices at noon were 9 to 10 points off from the best, but showed a net gain of about 18 to 21 points, as compared with Saturday.

Spot cotton was quiet; middling uplands 11.90; midling gulf 12.15.

FOREIGN ENGINEERS DEPART.

Member of Panama Canal Consulting Board Leave for Home.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The foreign delegates to the board of consulting engineers of the Isthmian Canal commission, left for New York today.

The delegates are William H. Hunter, chief engineer of the Manchester ship canal, the delegate from England, who will sail for his native country Wednesday; Eugene Tincauser, the German delegate who will return the 28th; M. A. Guerrard, delegate from France, who will sail for France on the 30th of this month, and J. W. Welker, who will leave for Rotterdam on the 29th. M. E. Quellenec, chief engineer of the Suez canal, leaves at the same time for New York, but will return to this city shortly and expects to make a trip down the Mississippi from Memphis to New Orleans to make a study of the engineering problems of that river. He expects to leave for France on the 29th of December.

These five delegates will meef again in Brussels during the first days of next January.

General Davis will go to that city as representative of the American members of the board and will take with him the documents which are not yet drawn up and which then will have to be signed by them.

VALUABLE SHIPMENT OF HORSES

Four Train Loads of Animals Valued Over $1,000,000 Arrive in Gotham.

New York, Nov. 28.—The Rancho del Paso stud, James B. Haggins, $1,250,000 worth of thoroughbred broodmares yearlings, fillies and stallions, after a 4,000-mile journey in palace horse cars, with running water and gas illumination, yesterday unloaded at the foot of West Thirty-sixth street.

This shipment of horses, 524 head, is the largest ever made. The cost of transportation, exclusive of the equine commissary and the wages of the three score of attendants, was $46,000. The train crossed the continent in four sections, three sections arriving yesterday. The first section got away from Sacramento, Cal., at 12:30 o'clock in the morning of last Monday. It reached the metropolis at 10:30 p. m. Saturday. The other sections were run out six hours apart, but in the great distance the last section is behind having lost some time. It is due this afternoon.

Mr. Haggin, who was present at the unloading said the stock had arrived in splendid shape. The stud will be sold at auction.

OFFICIALS OFFER TO YIELD TO MUTINEERS

Russian Sailors Control the Situation at Sebastopol.

ABSOLUTE CONTROL OF THE CITY

Railroad Tracks Have Been Torn Up. Reported that Officials at St. Petersburg Order Commander at Sevastopol to Grant Demands of Men.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—1:50 p. m.—The situation at Sebastopol is represented to be improved, the Brest regiment which went over in a body to the mutineers having returned to its allegiance and joined the Belostok regiment. Reinforcements have also arrived at Sebastopol from Simpheropol marching from Inkerman between which place and Sebastopol the railroad has been torn up.

Guns command all the entrances to the city from Admiralty Point, where the mutineers are quartered and the sailors are virtually prisoners there.

The battleship Panteleimon formerly the Kniaz Potemkine and the cruiser Otchakoff, are in the bay and in control of the mutineers who have placed their officers under arrest. The remaining ships of the Black Sea fleet are off the southern roadstedy. Their crews have not joined in the mutiny, but it is hardly believed they could be induced to fire on their comrades ashore.

Reinforcements are also on the way to Sebastopol from Odessa and Pavlograd.

It is rumored here that Vice Admiral Chouknin is parleying with the mutineers offering to accede to all demands relative to the improvement of the service conditions. This is not officially confirmed, but a dispatch from the American consul at Sebastopol which reports the outlook much less threatening, says it is reported that Admiral Chouknin has received orders from St. Petersburg to yield everything. The British consul is chartering a vessel to take off the subjects of Great Britain.

American Beaten by Russians.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—5 p. m.—Robert Woods Bliss, second secretary of the American embassy who has just returned here after a three months' vacation in Paris was the victim of an outrage by rowdies in one of the most fashionable streets of the capital late last night, and only escaped being beaten to death through the timely arrival of the police.

Boston Man Pleads Guilty.

Boston, Nov. 28.—Louis W. Crawford, and William E. Howard, alias Hunt, pleaded guilty today to charges of being accessories after the fact to the death of Susanna Geary, the victim of the Winthrop suite case tragedy. They will be sentenced later. Dr. Percy D. McCleod, who had pleaded not guilty to a charge of being accessory to the crime, was placed on trial. A jury was quickly obtained. McLeod is charged with being accessory to the fact of performing the illegal operatiin which resulted in Miss Susanna Geary's death, and also with being an accessory to the concealment of the crime.

Iroquois Hero Dead.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Janesville, Wis., says that Arthur W. Campbell, formerly private secretary of the president of the Northwestern university, died yesterday. He was present at the Iroquois fire in Chicago on Dec. 30, 1903, and rescued many persons. He never recovered from the shock.

Resident General for Seoul.

Tokio, Nov. 27.—3 p. m.—Several names are mentioned for the resident general at Seoul, but nothing will be known regarding the appointment until after the return of Marquis Ito. It would not be a surprise should M. Katsura, the present premier to Japan, be appointed to the position. The premiership would then go either to Marquis Ito, now president of the privy council, or to the Marquis Okuma, the president of the constitutional party.

WOMAN WAS BURNED TO DEATH AT WADE

Awful Fate of Annie Nelson at That Place Saturday Night.

TWO HOUSES WERE DESTROYED

The Heat Was So Intense That Those Who Were Aware of the Presence of the Woman in the House Were Unable to Rescue Her.

Wade, Nov. 28.—Saturday morning about 2 o'clock fire started in a house owned and occupied by Austell Nelson and Annie Nelson, colored, also known as Annie Childs, and in less than ten minutes the house and also another house used for a restaurant, were burned to the ground and Annie Nelson perished in the fire.

The woman, about 35 years old, had been addicted to the use of morphine, and that night it is supposed she took an overdose and in throwing the cover off her bed while laying on it, she threw it on the lamp, which was setting close to the bed, starting the fire. Help responded immediately, but owing to the heat no one could get close enough to the woman to give any aid. In trying to get to the door she must have been overcome by the heat and fell over her sewing machine. Her whole body was burned except the backbone and skull, and the remains were buried Saturday afternoon.

There being no sign of foul play an inquest was deemed unnecessary.

The woman also lost some money and about $150 in household goods.

METZ-HAILE.

An Early Morning Marriage of Two Popular Young People.

On Tuesday morning at half-past six o'clock there was a wedding at the home of Mrs. Rachel Haile, South Arredondo street, the contracting parties being Mrs. Haile's accomplished daughter, Miss Elizabeth Serena, and Mr. Thomas Groom Metz of Wilmington, Del. The ceremony was performed in a most impressive manner by Rev. Thos. P. Hay, of the First Presbyterian Church. The affair was a quiet one, only the immediate family, the minister and his wife, being present.

Immediately after the ceremony the party partook of a wedding breakfast, when they were driven to the station and took the train for St. Augustine and points on the East Coast. After a few days' honeymoon in Florida, they will proceed to Wilmington, their future home.

Miss Haile is one of Gainesville's loveliest and most popular daughters. She was a leader in society, and will be greatly missed by the young society folks. The groom is a very popular young man, and stands well in the community in which he resides. He holds the responsible position of chief clerk to the president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Sun, with other friends, extends congratulations, with the wish that their married life may be one of continued, undisturbed happiness.

MARION REMAINS WET.

Efforts of the Dry's to Take Possession of the County Failed.

Special to The Daily Sun

Ocala, Fla., November 28.—The Prohibitionists were defeated in the wet and dry election today and the probabilities are that the county will go from three hundred to three hundred and fifty wet.

The dry element feel greatly disheartened tonight, as they have felt confident they would be victorious by a large majority. The country precincts, many of which were conceded "dry," showed a nice majority for the "wets."

A Prominent Visitor.

Among the prominent Palatka people visiting this city yesterday was Colonel Harry M. deMontmollin, a member of the firm of the Stanton Foundry and Machine Company.

Col. deMontmollin is well known in military circles throughout the State, having been identified with the Florida State Troops for many years. He was for some time captain of the Gem City Guards, which was during his administration conceded to be the crack military company of the State. Retiring from the command of this company he was selected by Governor Jennings as a member of his staff with the rank of Colonel and retains this same distinctive honor under the administration of Governor Broward.

Few men in Florida are more thoroughly posted on tactics than is Colonel deMontmollin.

A PERFECT FOOD.

That Scott's Emulsion should act so quickly and satisfactorily in all cases of lost flesh and continued wasting is not surprising when its food value is understood. With pure Norwegian cod liver oil, hypophosphites of lime and soda and glycerine, there is combined in Scott's Emulsion the best elements of nourishment and strength building known to medical science. Any physician will tell you this. The use of these ingredients in the proper proportions; the employment of only the purest grade of each, and to combine them perfectly is the secret of the success of Scott's Emulsion. You will not find a more certain way to stop waste, build flesh and strength and supply nourishment than through Scott's Emulsion.

A jolly crowd of the young people took a straw ride out to A. Price's on Friday, and report having had a lovely time, with a bountiful supply of cane juice and other good things.

At the Opera House.

Fitz & Webster's "A Breezy Time," a comedy full of mirth and music, opened the theatrical season Tuesday night, and the company was greeted by a good audience.

The comedy comes in three "doses." The first was a little under the average, and those present began to think that they would not see just the quality of play they had anticipated; but, like wine, it grew better with age, and the second and third acts fully redeemed the weakness of the first, the jokes, singing and specialties being above the average.

The play is void of a plot, neither does it claim to have one. It is merely a combination of musical specialties and comical situations, which the company carried out in first-class style. There are some fine voices, and in all the production was as good as could be expected for one of its kind.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. J. W. McCollum & Co.

The route will be in a southwesterly direction along the Seaboard Air Line, and will comprise a round-trip of about thirty miles, which will give all persons along the route the benefit of a daily mail six times a week. The service is bound to prove of great benefit to the public, especially the truckers.

VEGETABLES ARE MOVING.

This Section Shipping Lettuce, Beans and Peas—Prices Good.

The movement of lettuce, peas and beans is reported from this section, and already several nice shipments have been made to the Northern markets, where good prices have been realized.

A prominent commission man stated to The Sun representative Tuesday that, while the acreage this season is not so extensive as last, the products seem to thrive better, and are of a superior quality. He states that, from his observation in various sections of the State, the Alachua county lettuce, so far as fineness and quality is concerned, is far ahead of anything. He predicts that Alachua county lettuce will bring a higher price than any other in the markets.

KILLED HIS WIFE WITH AN AXE

That Was the Specification, But the Evidence Looked to the Jury to be Entirely Circumstantial, Which Saved the Prisoner's Neck.

The circuit court convened at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, His Honor Judge Wills presiding.

There was little doing in the court during the day, the day having been confined to the trial of one case, that of the State vs. John W. Green, charged with murder.

The specification of the charge was to the effect that the defendant, John W. Green, on a certain day and date, did advance upon his wife with an axe and split her head open, resulting in instant death. This tragedy occurred at the home of the Greens, near Newberry.

The case occupied the attention of the court during nearly the entire day. The prisoner being arraigned several days ago, pleaded not guilty, and the case came on to be heard. A jury was sworn as follows: J C. Balis, foreman; J. F. Fralick, C. C. Fletcher, Alex Howe, Alex Avera, J. A. McKinstry, D. A. Robertson, C. Ahrentz, John Seagle, H. C. Roth, A. J. DaCosta, J. L. Strickland.

Case went to trial, evidence submitted, argument made, and verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree with a recommendation to mercy.

State of Florida vs. Charles Washington, selling liquor without a license. Prisoner arraigned and pleaded guilty.

After the transaction of a few minor affairs, the court adjourned until 8 o'clock Wednesday morning.

USEFUL FACTS

About Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Troubles Given to the People of Gainesville by Our Druggist, W. M. Johnson.

In conducting a large drug business we naturally meet a great many people at this season of the year who suffer from coughs, colds and bronchial troubles

As these troubles are easily controlled if the right means are taken we want to say to the people of Gainesville that we guarantee our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, will cure hanging-on-colds, stubborn coughs, bronchial and lung troubles, quicker than any preparation we have ever sold, because it is the most perfect preparation of cod liver oil ever compounded. It contains no oil or grease to clog the system and upset the stomach, yet it does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal elements actually taken from fresh cods' livers in a highly concentrated form, and is therefore the best cod liver preparation obtainable. Vinol is not a patent medicine; everything in it is named on the back label of the bottle and you know what you are taking, so without reservation we indorse and guarantee Vinol to strengthen every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended—to cure coughs, colds, bronchial troubles, increase the appetite, build up the rundown, tired and debilitated, and create strength and renewed vitality for the aged.

If Vinol fails to do what we say we will refund every dollar paid for it. You know us and know we will do as we agree. W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

PRISONERS KILL OFFICERS.

Russians Who Were Held in Japan Mutinied Against Keepers.

Vladivostok, Nov. 28.—The Russian prisoners returning here from Japan are in such a state of mutiny because it is impossible to immediately ship them back to Russia, that it became necessary to form a camp where they are held under guard.

On Saturday there was a tragic uprising at the camp, on Cape Choknin where a thousand prisoners from Port Arthur are confined. A drunken soldier who refused to salute an officer was sabred on the spot. His comradee rushed at the officer, who escaped to the officers' club, where he was joined by four other officers. They all made a hard fight for their lives with revolvers against the infuriated men, but before the arrival of a squadron of Cossacks, which had been hastily summoned by telephone, three of the officers were killed and one was terribly beaten.

About 20 men were killed in the struggle.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Regarding the proposed Zion colony in Mexico, he said:

"We have been in Mexico two months making much progress, but the project is still in its infancy. We were kindly received by President Diaz and we hope to secure a 2,000,000 acre grant in Tamaulipas for our new colony."

"Will the present Zion City be moved there?"

"That I will speak of later."

The trouble that rabid dogs are causing in different portions of the State should have a tendency to put a restriction on the number of worthless curs that are allowed to run at large. A dog that is of any worth or breeding is not allowed to be on the streets all the time, and the average "yaller" dog could very easily be dispensed with, and people would feel more secure.

Now we are told that a surgical operation is not necessary to save the life of a patient suffering from appendicitis. This important statement is made in a report to the State Department at Washington by Consul-General Guenther at Frankfort, Germany. He says a remedy has been found which will cure without the use of a knife. It is named "Collangol" and is a pure silver solution in water.

President Roosevelt has at last run up against a proposition that is liable to land the whole football fraternity square on him. He will find it a hard proposition to undertake to eliminate the rough-and-tumble tactics from football. The college elevens train to endure such practice, and football with the rough practice left out would not be football as she is played. The presidents of the greater colleges know better than to undertake to stop it and the students will not submit to any other dictatorship.

Reckless driving by some of the hack drivers is getting so common that the officers should put a stop to some of it. The drivers claim that the passengers urge them to hurry up, but there is no need of endangering human life to satisfy the whim of some rattle-headed person who claims to be in a great hurry. On Monday evening a gentleman stopped on a street corner to pick up a piece of money he had dropped, when a crazy driver came tearing along around the corner and came near running over him. The driver saw the man, but made no effort to check the speed of his horses until they were nearly on top of him.

BLUE AND GRAY.

As another evidence of the advancement the civilization of Florida is making, no grander scene could be imagined than the greeting of the Jewell brothers at the blue and gray reunion in Tampa last week. The Tampa Tribune in speaking of the meeting of the brothers says:

"To any of the several thousand people who listened to the speeches of General Jewell, the much-loved commander of the Third Brigade of the United Confederate Veterans of Florida who fought for the dearly-prized cause of the South, and of his brother, B. Wood Jewell of Omaha, Nebraska, who fought as valiantly for the preservation of the Union, it must have been a patriotic lesson.

"General Jewell and his brother are natives of Massachusetts. Before the great internecine conflict the General came to Florida. He created interests here and when war was declared he was found in the front ranks defending the cause that he thought to be right and just.

"His brother, a little older, who had remained at the old home in New England, was naturally imbued with the spirit that dominated the people of that section. Wood Jewell shouldered his musket and knapsack and invaded the South and he was met on the field of battle by men who wore the gray with his brother.

"One dressed in the uniform of gray, the other in blue, Friday spoke from the same place. It was a pathetic scene—one long to be remembered—when General Jewell before the vast audience embraced his brother and kissed him. The ties of flesh and blood are stronger than any other in the world."

The fact is plain that the gallant soldiers of both armies have long ago buried all feeling of enmity, and there are no more loyal citizens than the old comrades of the "blue and gray."

ALACHUA FINE STOCK.

The people of Alachua county are very fortunate in having such an enterprise as Spring Park Stock Farm, and in charge of N. A. Callison it has done much to advance the stock interests of the county as well as this section of the State. Besides the fine display of Hereford and Jersey cattle shown at the State Fair, this farm has also succeeded in capturing several prizes in its exhibit of Berkshire hogs and the young hogs shown captured first prize, which is a very clever showing.

With prize cattle and hogs there is do doubt of the fact that Alachua still stands at the head as a meat producing county, and in other lines that pertain to the farm we are in the forefront. And it must be understood that this stock is not only the best in Florida, which is not yet so old in the raising of fine stock; but there is no doubt but it would hold a front rank with any stock-producing section of the United States.

Spring Park Farm has the breeds that are most desired and the fact that it has produced prize-winning individuals is very gratifying to the owners of this well-managed farm and also to the farmers who desire to improve their stock from acclimated sires that stand at the head of their class. Good blood is always to be desired, but prize-winning individuals are worth ten times the value of high-grade scrubs, which are not desirable at any price.

Alachua county will surely remain at the front in the line of fine stock—thanks to the Spring Park Stock Farm.

FLORIDA PLANTS.

There is an impression among many people in the North that California is the only country where tropical plants and shrubs are found, which is very far from the truth, as there are as many varieties of rare tropical trees, plants and shrubs grown in Florida as in the Golden State.

It has been some talk that there was only one Banyan tree to be found in the United States, and that was in California, when the fact is there are two at least in Miami, and perhaps more in other parts of the State.

The Poinsettia is another shrub that puts forth a beautiful blossom of bright vermillion, and is said to be a native of Mexico. California lays great stress on this flower and it is claimed to grow in no other part of the United States, yet in Gainesville there is one growing in the garden of Dr. J. S. Bodiford, that is as healthy and beautiful as any that ever breathed the air of the Golden State.

When it comes to roses, there may be more of them grown in other States than Florida, but they do well here with little or no attention, and there are many varieties to be found. Where they receive the care that these beautiful flowers deserve they are very prolific, and many of them bloom during the entire summer and winter.

There may be other places that have more natural scenery than Florida, but when it comes to finding a place where one can live the year through with comfort and all the conveniences, you cannot excel this beautiful peninsula.

Past Resuscitation.

In the days of the first settlers in the Chickasaw country, when Davy Crockett still frequented the Big Hatchie, "Old Man Giddins" was a prosperous citizen of the Forked Deer settlement. One day he started on a trip to Arkansas, and thenceforth for several years Forked Deer knew him no more. As travel in Arkansas was dangerous and as nothing was heard of Giddins, he was officially declared dead by the court and his estate divided among his heirs. A year or so later, however, he turned up and tried to get possession of his property again. He was promptly seized and taken into court.

"What do you mean by coming around here and trying to take this property?" roared the court at him.

"It's my property," asserted Giddins. "Everybody knows it's mine."

"Not at all," replied the judge. "I'll admit your case seems a hard one, but it can't be helped now. This court has decided that you are extinctus defunctus, which is Latin for dead. This court cannot err. Dead you are. If you want any property around here you must take another name and set to work to earn it. Mr. Sheriff, adjourn this court, and we will go and see that wrestling match you spoke of."

The fruit is now going forward at a rapid rate and it is thought there will be very little left in this section of the State after the holidays.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by W. W. Johnson.

KILLED MAN IN SELF DEFENSE.

Tragedy Occurs in Parlor of Boarding House in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Nov. 28.—Dr. O. T. Kenyon, of Dawson, Ga., who shot and killed R. E. Dickerson at 135 Spring street Saturday night, was arraigned in the recorder's court this morning on the charge of discharging firearms in the city limits. No state case was made against Dr. Kenyon, the police believing from all the evidence that the killing was in self defense. The city case, it is said, was made merely to get the case on record and to have the facts brought out in court.

Dr. Kenyon was able to leave the Grady hospital Sunday, and walked about the street.

The shooting occurred in the front hall of Mrs. L. G. Weston's boarding house, and was the result of jealousy on the part of Dickerson, who became enraged because Dr. Kenyon had gone to the theater with Miss Florence Weston, the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. Weston. Dickerson was in love with the young girl, and he had been denied the privilege of escorting her out at night. He upbraided Mrs. Weston for not letting him go with the girl to the theater when she had allowed Dr. Kenyon was a married man, and an intimate friend of the family, and that whle it would be right for the girl to go with him, it would be wrong for her to go with young men.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, manager of The Republican of Leavensworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Senator Burton Found Guilty.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—United States Senator J. Ralph Burton, of Kansas convicted in the federal circuit court of an indictment charging that he agreed to receive and did receive compensation for practicing as an attorney for a corporation before the post office department, will be called before Judge Vandeventer at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to receive sentence. The maximum penalty for the offense is imprisonment for two years and a fine of $10,000 on each of the six counts on which Senator Burton was found guilty. Senator Burton's attorneys stated tonight that they would immediately ask for a new trial. It is practically certain that Judge Vandeventer will overrule the motion, and then a notice of appeal will be filed.

Conference Trials Ended.

Newnan, Ga., Nov. 28.—Dr. H. S. Bradley, pastor of Trinity church of Atlanta, has been exonerated of the charge of heresy preferred against him and Dr W. W. Wadsworth, pastor of the Hartwell church, charged with immoral conduct, was declared guilty of imprudence by the committee which investigated his case, and his suspension for one year was recommended to the conference. The reports of the committee in these cases were the chief matters of interest of the North Georgia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, in session here.

Young Man Kills Uncle.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 28.—At a point about 7 miles from Luray Lester Ruffner, as the result of a quarrel over fighting dogs in a fox chase, though there had been bad blood between the two Ruffner families for years. The slayer went to Luray, got a shave and an oyster stew, and then gave himself

THE BLACK CROSS.

Mysterious Harvest of Death Reaped In a Haunted Hut.

We were forced to camp three days at the mouth of the Rio Frio, which empties into Lake Nicaragua just where the San Juan begins. We were joined there by a party of German scientists who were making a tour of the Central American republics. There were seven in the party and two native guides. They had lost a tent in crossing the rapids, and one of them was forced to sleep in an old deserted hut buried in the wild foliage. He was a young Leipsic student of fine physique and beloved by all his companions. The natives had tried to dissuade him from sleeping in the hut, telling him that the place was haunted. They asserted that whoever slept there was always found dead next morning, with a mark of a black cross on the neck just over the main artery. As a proof of what they said they showed two ominous looking mounds buried in the shrubbery near the hut which, they said, were the graves of two Englishmen who had sought shelter in the haunted casa.

Tradition had it that some crime or sacrilege had been committed there and that, as a punishment, whoever slept in the hut was found dead in the morning with the cruz nigra on the neck. Herr Shilbach, however, was not to be deterred by any such superstition, as he called it. So about 10 o'clock he retired to his hut, and I noticed his torch was out in a few minutes and all was darkness. We had paid no attention to the story of the natives, but as Herr Shilbach did not answer the bugle call for breakfast the Indians were ordered to summon him. It was only under threats that they yielded, but scarcely had they entered the hut when we heard the most frightful screams, and the next minute the guides were rushing wildly toward us, shouting in broken Spanish and Indian: "Epia la cruz nigra, la cruz nigra! Il senor is dead!" We all ran to the hut, and to our horror there lay the young man wrapped in his blanket, his head thrown back, showing the small black cross on the left side of the neck.—Exchange.

Keep Your Head Clear

And your stomach free from Indigestion if you would be happy with your family and your fellow-man.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, soggy bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

McCURDY RESIGNS PRESIDENCY.

Head of Mutual Life Insurance Company Ready to Retire.

New York, Nov. 28.—The World today says:

Richard McCurdy, president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, has resigned. The time when his resignation takes effect depends only on the time required by the trustees to find his successor.

Quickly following the retirement of President McCurdy, his son, Robert H.

RICHARD McCURDY.

McCurdy, general manager of the Mutual, and his son-in-law, Louis A. Thebaud, the general agent for New York, have resigned.

A tentative offer to head the company was made to James B. Fort, president of the First National bank of Chicago, who once was an Equitable director. His bank is one of the leading financial institutions of the middle west. Mr. Fort declined to accept the offer.

REMOVED BY ROOSEVELT.

Assistant United States Treasurer Violated Civil Service Laws.

Washington, Nov. 28.—President Roosevelt today removed from office William S. Lieb, assistant United States treasurer at Philadelphia for "constant and persistent violation of the civil service law while in office."

In a formal statement issued at the White House today by President Roosevelt, Mr. Lieb's removal is announced. The president gave Mr. Lieb a hearing last Friday at the request of Senators Penrose and Knox of Pennsylvania. Mr. Lieb submitted a long statement in answer to the charges made against him, and was supported in his defense by Representative Patterson of Pennsylvania. After careful consideration of all the facts developed by the inquiry, the president decided to remove Mr. Lieb from office, it being shown according to the statement that there was constant and consistent effort on your (Mr. Lieb's) part to evade the provisions of the civil service law, to hamper its workings as far as possible, and to obstruct in every way the action of the commission." The president declared that the evidence showed fraud in the civil service examinations, the fraud in one instance implicating Mr. Leib's sister.

Women Aid in Keeping "Lid On."

Chicago, Nov. 28.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Indianapolis, Ind., says: Every woman who lives near a saloon in this city made it her business yesterday to assist the police in keeping "the lid" on. As a result, seven arrests were made, one of them a grocer, for illegal sales of liquor. Before noon women had telephoned to the police of five violations of the law and in every case the saloon was found doing business on the sly. Throughout the state there seems to be about the same vigilance as is exercised here and all cities and towns report that the "lid is on."

Boston Bank Fails.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The comptroller of the currency today received a telegram to the effect that by order of the directors the American National bank of Boston has closed its doors. It is said that the bank has not been in good condition for some time and efforts have been made to liquidate the bank, but apparently without success. It is not expected that any of the creditors of the bank will lose anything by the failure. According to a recent statement the American National bank of Boston owed depositors $367,520. The bank was established in 1901.

"ACQUIRED TASTES."

The Story of a Love Affair, a Dinner Speech and a Duel.

He and her father were great friends. As only four persons figure in this story it is unnecessary to mention names. He had a rival for her affections, and her father could never understand why she preferred the rival to him. One day when he sat on the porch chatting with her father she called him into the parlor and told him frankly that she had promised to marry his rival. He did not plead or beg. He kissed her hand with a sort of reverence and then returned to his seat on the porch and renewed the conversation with her father. In those few moments everything seemed to have changed for him. The sun did not shine as brightly; the birds did not sing as they did before. Even the grass and trees seemed sear and dead. He had expected what he had just heard, but that did not seem to abate the shock. He was distrait and moody. Her father saw this and asked him the cause. He blurted out the whole miserable truth. Her father continued to polish his glasses carefully and then said:

"Wimmen folks is mighty onsartin critters." Her father said nothing more, but nothing would change her mind. Gradually it came to be generally known that he had been rejected and that his rival was the fortunate wooer. They, he and his rival, were alumni of the same college. He was down for a speech at the alumni dinner. A month before he had attended her wedding. No one ever heard him complain, though all knew how he suffered. He was looked upon as the orator of his class, and a great speech was expected. When he arose a sinister glitter could be seen in his eye. He began to speak slowly. He took as his text "Acquired Tastes." He spoke at length. Finally he said:

"I called upon a dear friend some time ago who had just had a daughter married. He felt his loss very keenly. I tried to console him, telling him that while he had lost a daughter he had gained a son. He said slowly to me:

"'Maybe I will come to like him after awhile—like I do my cigar—but the first few puffs are making me mighty sick.'"

It was in Kentucky. Not a word was said then, but just as the sun peeped over the hills the next day two dark forms were seen silhouetted against the sky. There were two flashes, a combined, subdued report—and one fell, never to rise again. It was he.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Waterproof Foliage.

An oriental scholar was giving an address on the philosophy and religion of the east. His English was of good quality, only now and then becoming interesting from the humorous point of view when he attempted colloquial idioms. After describing with fervor the sage—the one who can walk amid the difficulties and perplexities of mortal existence and yet, unaffected by these, retain his perfect serenity—the speaker was looking about for some familiar comparison by which to bring home the idea to his hearers.

"Ah, I have it!" he said, pleased at the recollection that rewarded his effort. "It is an expressive saying of your own language, said to me by a lady with whom I was last evening conversing. Take that familiar bird, the duck. It is possible to pour a bucketful of water upon that duck, and yet the water can never get into his leaves."—New York Press.

Quite a Distinction.

"If you will be very careful to eat plain food," said the physician, "you will enjoy good health."

"If I have to eat plain food," answered the epicure, "I may have good health, but I won't enjoy it."—Washington Star.

The way of the world is to make laws, but follow customs.—Montaigne.

GARDENS OF THE SEA

FLOATING ISLANDS THAT FORM AND BLOOM AND PERISH.

The Wonderful and Luxuriant Homeless Wanderers of the South American Rivers—The Famous Floating Gardens of Mexico.

Along the great rivers of South America are to be seen—what to many would seem incredible—floating in graceful motion on the rising and falling waves beautiful green islands covered with trees and flowers, alive with hundreds of birds and strange combinations of terror stricken animals.

Floating islands are generally the result of the overflowing and the washing away of river banks. Others are formed by the twisted roots of the bog mush and matter—trees which year after year have drifted slowly down the streams, forming a solid mass or raft upon which a gradual deposit of vegetable mold is formed and fitted for the luxuriant growth of plants. Still others are formed by aquatic plants, with large, flat leaves, like a lily pad, which become a mass of solid matter floated by the autumn floods down the rivers and eventually out into the open sea, where they are soon dashed to pieces and destroyed.

Along the Amazon, Rio de la Plata and their tributaries wonderful sights are frequently seen on the hundreds of floating islands as they gracefully pass by, driven by the wind and current on their seaward journey, sometimes measuring nearly a mile in length, about a hundred feet wide and four to six feet in thickness, the greater portion of which is under water. Amid the dense foliage the observer will behold numerous tropical animals in strangely mingled companionship—crocodiles, monkeys, storks, wildcats and snakes—assembled together as one family and regarding one another with hostility and mistrust. Parrots and squirrels are frequent passengers, and in this odd way of traveling, sometimes thousands of miles, they find themselves transported to new and strange localities far from their native homes.

Great alarm is sometimes caused among the inhabitants of the towns and villages along these rivers by strange and ferocious animals prowling about the streets, having been washed ashore during the night. One of the most remarkable passengers aboard one of these natural floats was a small Indian boy found drifting on an island near Buenos Ayres. How long he had been drifting or how he happened to be there could not be found out, but he had nearly succumbed from hunger and long exposure.

Floating islands are also the means of various seeds and rare plants being carried to foreign soil thousands of miles distant from their starting place, but often only to fade and perish from the extreme change of climate.

Not alone to South American rivers are these "homeless wanderers," as they are sometimes known, common, but in Africa, on the Kongo, are found floating isles green with foliage, brilliant with flowers and covered with birds of gorgeous plumage, being wafted along by the wind, sometimes sinking from sight, sometimes rising on the crest of a wave like a duck in the wake of a boat. On the Mississippi are found numerous islands that float. The existence of vast forests bordering the banks account for this phenomenon, as the gradual wearing away of the earth causes sections of the mainland to become disconnected and to slowly proceed down the river, frequently blockading the channel, so that in many places a safe passage is impossible.

One of the largest of these floating islands ever known on this greatest American river was ten miles in length, 200 yards wide and about eight feet deep, rising and falling with the water, yet covered with luxuriant trees some sixty feet in height. This great island so obstructed the river that the state of Louisiana had to take steps to dispose of the raft and open navigation, which required the space of nearly four years to complete.

History tells us that islands made from reeds, which were not only moved about by the wind, but by oars, were the means of the escape of many Roman citizens during the Mithridatic wars. Indian legends are full of interesting stories of the marvelous escapes of fugitives on "camelotes," which were floating islands composed of green rafts of canes or brushwood.

The wondrous floating gardens of Mexico, though little heard of today, were at one time famous for their great beauty. A foundation made of a sort of wickerwork which was overspread with clay, manure and rich mold was formed in such a way as to float, upon which maize, vegetables and other useful plants were raised. It is said that at one time the city of Mexico received an ample supply of fresh vegetables from these floating gardens.

Many of the gardens were large enough for a tree and a little hut which sheltered the farmer from the sun and rain, while to others, not being sufficiently large to bear the weight of man, the farmer was compelled to row in a boat and from it attend to his daily labors. Cucumbers and melons were among the most successful crops. Numerous flowers and odoriferous plants were also abundantly grown and used for the houses of the nobility and for the worship of the gods.

One of the peculiar advantages this custom had over the more usual manner of gardening was that when the person desired to remove from a disagreeable neighborhood to a new situation or change to a location nearer his family he could conduct his garden wherever he pleased, and at any time, by means of a small boat or by the use of oars.

In Kashmir the floating gardens or islands are spoken of as being remarkably beautiful in their high state of cultivation. The city of Kashmir being divided into many isolated portions by lakes and narrow streams, the low ground is very likely to be suddenly overflowed, and in order to avoid the loss which such a flood would probably cause the inhabitants made their gardens on small floating islands which drifted about over the smooth surface of the lakes.

Although the floating gardens of Mexico were at one time of great celebrity, covered with rare tropical plants and brilliant with gayly colored flowers, yet still more interesting are the rural floating islands which are swept seaward on the great rivers of South America by hundreds and thousands, large and small, and swarming with a menagerie of wild and excited animals. The zoological gardens of Buenos Ayres have received an addition of about fifty different species of tropical animals rescued from the islands passing down the Rio de la Plata.—New York Herald.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at all drug stores. Trial bottles free.

A Story of Victor Hugo.

Victor Hugo, as is well known, was a man of exceeding vanity. He had a sense of his own importance which often manifested itself in ridiculous ways. During the siege of Paris in 1871 a number of political and literary men were dining one evening at his house. The conversation turned on the horrors of the siege, and the members of the party gave their respective ideas as to the best means of terminating it. Suddenly Victor Hugo had an inspiration. "I know how to do it," he said, with such conviction that every one was filled with hope and expectation.

"Yes," he continued, "tomorrow I, Victor Hugo, dressed in my national costume, will go forth all alone, unarmed, and meet the bullets of the enemy. I shall be killed, and the siege will be over!"

"Over for you," irreverently interrupted one of the company.

Victor Hugo's brow took on an Olympian frown. Never again did the unhappy interrupter receive an invitation to the table of the poet.—Harper's Weekly.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.

You cannot accomplish very much if your liver is inactive, as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and very pleasant to take. Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Danish Dinner Custom.

A pretty table observance in Danish families is for children, even little ones who can scarcely toddle, to go gravely after dinner to salute their parents and say, "Tak for mad" (thanks for the meal). Even visitors shake hands with their host and hostess and go through the same formality. In German families that hold to tradition the same custom prevails. When the evening meal is ended the party stands up around the table, and each shakes hands with the neighbor, saying, "Gesegnete mahlzeit" (blessing the food). This is a relic of those faroff times when food was the elusive ideal, the thing that came as a personal compliment from the Deity. There is an echo of that custom among the students of Leipsic, whose intimate greeting at all times of the day is simply "Mahlzeit!" An English writer says: "Seldom do I rise from the table without the passing flash of a remembered sentence: 'Thank you, papa and mamma, for my nice dinner. Please may little boy get down?'"
